

Balázs Bágyi - Dániel P. Szabó Drums - Cimbalom Duo

PRESSKIT

The drum kit and cimbalom duo of Balázs Bágyi and Dániel P. Szabó is a unique colour and an incomparable project in ethno-jazz and world music.

They are both remarkable artists of the jazz and folk music scene in Hungary and internationally as well. The way they play is based on the most beautiful heritage of chamber music. Their repertoire consists of Eastern-European, mostly Hungarian and Romanian folk, combined with the elements of jazz and improvised music. After their long time collaboration in the Balázs Bágyi Quartet and several success in their own careers the duo was formed in 2007. Their debut album called "Duola" was released in 2009.

During their tour in Romania they represented Hungary at the International Bookfest in Bucharest by the invitation of the Hungarian Cultural Institute in 2011.
